We updated your Deposit Account Agreement

We added clarifying information about overdrafts to your agreement on November 16, 2014, including:

- A revised explanation of the order in which withdrawals post to your account. As a reminder, deposits will generally continue to post first to your account.
- Details about our end of business day cutoff times so you know when you can add money to your account to avoid an overdraft.

For a copy of your agreement, you can view it anytime by logging in at chase.com and clicking Legal Agreements and Disclosures at the bottom of any page, or visit a branch.

If you have questions, please call us at the telephone number listed on this statement or visit your nearest Chase branch.

IN CASE OF ERRORS OR QUESTIONS ABOUT YOUR ELECTRONIC FUNDS TRANSFERS: Call or write us at the phone number or address on the front of this statement (non-personal accounts contact Customer Service) if you think your statement or receipt is incorrect or if you need more information about a transfer listed on the statement or receipt. We must hear from you no later than 60 days after we sent you the FIRST statement on which the problem or error appeared. Be prepared to give us the following information:

- Your name and account number
- The dollar amount of the suspected error
- A description of the error or transfer you are unsure of, why you believe it is an error, or why you need more information.

We will investigate your complaint and will correct any error promptly. If we take more than 10 business days (or 20 business days for new accounts) to do this, we will credit your account for the amount you think is in error so that you will have use of the money during the time it takes us to complete our investigation.

IN CASE OF ERRORS OR QUESTIONS ABOUT NON-ELECTRONIC TRANSACTIONS: Contact the bank immediately if your statement is incorrect or if you need more information about any non-electronic transactions (checks or deposits) on this statement. If any such error appears, you must notify the bank in writing no later than 30 days after the statement was made available to you. For more complete details, see the Account Rules and Regulations or other applicable account agreement that governs your account.
